Public Input Re: Potential Automated Garbage Collection Conversion

Alessandrini opened the floor for public comment. The following comments were received:

Lucy Shampo – 1001 S. Kimberly Ave.

Shampo voiced her support based on the availability of recycling in the future.

Walt Lakari – 606 W. Ludington St.

Lakari stated his objection to garbage collection being amended.

Jayna Huotari – 1004 W A St.

Huotari indicated his concern for trash cans being left in the front yard.

Dave Johnson – 1215 Van Buren St.

Johnson communicated his support for automated collection. He inquired if there could be an option to purchase additional cans outright due to regularly increased rubbish.

Ryan Raiche – 601 E. E St.

Raiche supported the proposed change in collection method.

Dave Aronson – 205 W. Brown St.

Aronson imparted his support for automated collecting and his desire to maintain alley pick-up service due to his property's topography.

Darren Tavonatti – 518 E. A St.

Tavonatti expressed his support with items to consider in an area with winter.

Dawn Smith – 602 E. F St.

Smith relayed her concern regarding alley pickup but supported recycling.

Barbara Bigelow – 1009 Prospect Ave.

Bigelow conveyed her support for the move to automated pick up while raising concern for winter pick up. She questioned if a resident could drop off her own garbage if need be.

Erin Recla – 1644 S. Park Ave.

Recla notes her support for automated pickup and recycling in the future.
