Public Comment (Dispensary Related)

Stanchina noted that the next discussion of this topic will be at the regular November 21, 2022, meeting when the City Attorney is present.

Doug Hellyar, Lume Cannabis Co. President

Hellyar relayed the benefits his company offers the community and the downward shift in the marijuana market.

Matt Williams, 817 Devereaux St.

Williams supported greater opportunity for local business and a free market approach to licensing.

Dan Kreider, Superior Selections

Kreider communicated that this company has put a lot into the community and requested two additional dispensary licenses.

Walter Reichle, 901 Fairbanks St.

Reichle conveyed the negative effect of marijuana on the user's health, employment status, and addiction potential.

Ken Draper, 1309 W. A St.

Draper echoed Reichle's sentiments. He indicated his concern that too many licensed would be an overall detriment to the community.
